

Kilimanjaro International Milestones

1997

Greyson Kiondo
1997

JN&T Kilimanjaro International Inc. founded in the U.S. by Greyson L. Kiondo—a Tanzanian studying in the US.

1997-1999

Kilimanjaro International carries out several small projects in foreign trade, financial services and foreign direct investment promotion; Kiondo markets brand focusing especially on home country of Tanzania.

1999

Kilimanjaro International designs and delivers its first-ever training seminar to the National Insurance Corporation of Tanzania Limited (NIC), a marketing seminar delivered by Jeffrey C. Carr—a Kilimanjaro International senior consultant with many years experience training Fortune 500 companies around the world.

1999-2001

Kilimanjaro International focuses on demand-driven training workshops delivered by experienced, senior-level consultants from the North American and European private business sectors. Pursues contracts for small, short-term consulting projects.

Identifies and forms relationships with highly qualified indigenous professionals.

2002-2004

Kilimanjaro International wins contracts for small, short-term consulting projects.

Expands into East and Central Africa by forming the member firms Kilimanjaro International (Rwanda) Ltd; Kilimanjaro International Corporation Ltd. (Tanzania); Kilimanjaro International (Uganda) Ltd.; Kilimanjaro International (Kenya) Ltd.; Kilimanjaro International (Burundi) Ltd.; and Kilimanjaro International Corporation Ltd. (Ethiopia).

2005-2007

Kilimanjaro International wins multi-year contracts worth millions of US dollars.

Continues to win new contracts and offer high-quality training and consulting services.

Further grows internally to ensure technical competence and quality customer service.

Celebrates 10th Anniversary.

Launches Newsletter.

2008 & beyond

George Mizray

Kilimanjaro International will sustain a controlled growth designed to meet client capacity-building needs. Expand market throughout Africa and beyond. Refine operations to ensure consistent outstanding customer service.